Wilson Scholars Program

The Wilson Scholars Program at the Mayo Clinic College of Medicine and Science (MCCMS), in partnership with the Office for Diversity, is a graduate medical education pathway program towards career advancement.

The program is open to medical students that are underrepresented in medicine or those with a demonstrated commitment to the advancement of diversity and equity in healthcare.

APPLICATIONS OPEN IN Spring 2021

For more information, contact officeforeducationdiversity@mayo.edu

HOW DO YOU PARTICIPATE?

The next opportunity to become a Wilson Scholars will take place in Spring 2021 through a variety of recruitment events such as the Student National Medical Association conference and via email by those interested.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

Current first, second, and third year medical students

WHAT IS INVOLVED?

As a scholar, you will be assigned a Mayo Clinic mentor who will help facilitate your career aspirations. MCCMS leadership will have periodic contact with Wilson Scholars.

Additionally, Floyd R. Willis, MD, Medical Director, Barbara Jordan, Administrator, or another member of the Wilson Scholars Steering Committee will interact with each scholar to provide information for those scholars who have an interest in Mayo Clinic School of Graduate Medical Education for residency training.

IS THERE A COST?

No, this pathway program is an educational benefit to students interested in Mayo Clinic residencies.

Learn more online at https://college.mayo.edu/academics/diversity-and-inclusion/programs/