

Living in Jacksonville

Metro Jacksonville is the 12th most populous city in the U.S. at 1,688,208. Population has grown by 2 percent in the past year, which makes it the 6th fastest growing large metropolitan city.

Jacksonville is a well-rounded city with convenient location, mild climate, reasonable cost of living, high quality of life, and business-friendly environment.

Additionally, it has the incentive of intermodal transportation with leading distribution centers. The growing city is also the center for advanced medicine with a growing medical hub of over 10 top-rated medical facilities. The Jacksonville region is an economic driver and gateway to Florida.

Towering skyscrapers line the St. Johns River, and Jacksonville, the largest city in square miles in the continental United States, is home to three U.S. Navy bases, numerous major corporations, a Professional Golf Association tournament, the Jacksonville Jaguars National Football League team and three minor league sports teams. There are 10 colleges, universities, and professional schools within 30 miles.

Jacksonville offers five-star restaurants, resorts and other leisure activities. Its geographical location puts to many cultural, historic and entertainment centers in both Florida and Georgia. The area is home to national landmarks such as historic St. Augustine and Fernandina Beach, as well as leisure sites such as the St. Johns River, World Golf Village and Marineland. With Savannah and Amelia island just lying north of Jacksonville. Every newcomer has a location in northeast Florida from oceanfront living, a downtown urban loft or a rural homestead.
